What is the Oak National Academy?

From today, Monday 20 April, parents can access 180 lessons a week for every year group from Reception through to year 10, through a new online platform, Oak National Academy.

The enterprise which has been set up by teachers and is funded by the Department of Education, will provide video lessons for students, with each lesson coming with a corresponding quiz and worksheet.

According to the Ambition Institute, each lesson will last one hour and the portal will provide the equivalent of three hours of lessons a day for primary students and four hours for secondary.

The Oak National Academy resources

To access the Oak National Academy resources, go to their official website, https://www.thenational.academy/ where resources went live this morning. From here, you can view lessons by subject and level, or you can follow their planned weekly schedule.
